

GLC Limited Appoints Ted Logan as Head of Business Development

London, March 10, 2010 - GLC Limited today announced that Ted Logan has joined the company in a senior management role as Head of Business Development. Ted joins GLC from Aspect Capital Limited where he was Head of North American Sales. Prior to Aspect, Ted worked at Goldman Sachs (NYSE:GS) in the Investment Management division. At GLC, he will be responsible for all investor-related activities as well as building strategic relationships with distribution partners worldwide.

“After delivering a strong performance in investment returns and asset growth in 2008 and 2009, we are pleased to have Ted join the management team to contribute further to our success,” commented Caroline Hoare, CEO of GLC.

GLC Ltd is a UK based independent fund management company and was founded in 1992. It is regulated by the FSA. The company currently manages over $1.5bn in quantitative investment strategies and a discretionary global macro fund, principally for an institutional client base.
